

Rotary Club of Peachtree City Dragon Boat Festival Guidelines and Policies

Rotary International has specific guidelines and policies within which it operates and affects communities worldwide. The Rotary Club of Peachtree City so desires to abide by these same parameters. As such, these guidelines have been established for the Dragon Boat Festival for all participants (vendors, paddlers, sponsors, volunteers, etc.).

FESTIVAL ADVERTISEMENTS:

1. Because its world-wide membership includes persons of many facets of political opinion, no corporate action or corporate expression of opinion shall be taken or given by Rotary on political subjects. No political signs or candidates will be allowed anywhere at the festival due to this Rotary International Policy. (see section 26.020 of the Rotary International Codes of Policy)
2. Rotary is a secular organization whose membership includes persons of all faiths, religions, and beliefs. No Religion-based soliciting will be allowed anywhere at the festival due to this Rotary International Policy. (see section 26.030 of the Rotary International Codes of Policy).

TEAMS:

1. The Community Outreach Program is offered as a community service. Participation in these coaching / training sessions is free with donations accepted.
2. Teams needing cancellation will be given the option to move their registration fee to the next year or to convert it into a sponsorship for the current year festival. No refunds will be given.

VENDORS/CULTURAL EXHIBITORS:

1. Rotary affinity groups, i.e. Community Corp or Smart Directory, may have vendor booths without being charged a vendor booth fee.
2. Cultural Exhibits may not sell anything in their booth.
3. Charity partners may sell items in their booth as a fundraiser providing it does not affect any paying vendors (i.e. selling ice cream will be prohibited if we already have a paying ice cream vendor). Nonfood items will be preferred. The vendor coordinator must pre-approve all food items.
4. ALL booths are encouraged to display an international theme in some way.
